

YOKE gain success at the 10th Annual Taiwan Corporate Sustainability Awards

YOKE gain success at the 10th Annual Taiwan Corporate Sustainability Awards, reflecting its commitment to the environment for future generations.

“We are extremely proud to be recognized for our commitment to corporate social responsibility and progress towards sustainability. It is not just all about profit” said Steven Hong, as he congratulated all his employees, customers, suppliers and other stakeholders who ensure YOKE can work in harmony with the environment. “Despite the corporate pressures we face every day to grow the business, the positive attitude, guidance and engagement from the whole team ensures we can sustain and develop YOKE Corporation. A sustainable manufacturing company, minimizing the impact on our people and the environment” added Mr. Hong.

This award continues to differentiate YOKE as one of the leading manufacturing and sustainable companies.

